

Donations:

If you have never donated to the Bursary Fund before, please consider doing so. Preparing students for ministry is an important aspect of our church life.

If you have donated before, please consider doing so again, as we try to give away the balance of the fund each year in order to help as many students as possible.

Please make cheques payable to Saskatchewan Conference.

To ensure funds are properly allocated, in the cheque's memo section, please note Bursary Fund

Donations should be sent to:

United Church Women Bursary Fund

How to Donate
How to Receive

UCW BURSARY FUND

The Bursary Fund has been in existence for over 45 years.

Saskatchewan UCWs started it as a Centennial Project in 1967, its purpose being to support women who wanted to study at the Centre for Christian Studies in Toronto. That was the beginning.

Now the fund assists any student from Saskatchewan in a United Church recognized program for ministry, who is in need.

Recipients of the bursary fund are serving in ministry in Saskatchewan Conference and beyond.

The UCW Bursary Fund provides funding directly to students training for ministry. As the cost of education increases, any support students receive becomes more and more valuable and appreciated.

We accept donations to the Fund from all parts of the United Church.

Who is eligible to receive a Bursary?

Persons who are members of a Saskatchewan Conference United Church congregation and who are participants in a recognized program of preparation for pastoral ministry in The United Church of Canada.

(Division of Mission Executive, November/99)

Application forms are available from the Conference Office or from our website:

www.sk.united-church.ca
under Resources/Funding.

Along with the completed application form, you are asked to provide a brief financial statement, listing estimated income (including salary, student loans and other bursaries) and expenditures.
