

Priority Setting and Planning Emergent Work

This emergent work is to be performed by the Conference Executive or a time limited task group. It includes:

1. Evaluating the life, work and structures of the Conference by assisting and challenging Conference, and its Committees, networks, and tasks to review their mandates and the process by which they fulfil them.
2. Enabling those groups to increase their faithfulness and effectiveness.
3. Facilitating a process of change where necessary.